Dillon, S. C., October 21, 1909.

Peary says his name is pronounced Pe-ry, not Per-ry. But most people are pronouncing it M-u-d.

Eggs are selling at $2 per dozen in Cuba. But there is consolation in knowing that one place has been found where eggs sell higher than in Dillon.

An exchange says "the man who could run a newspaper to suit everybody went to heaven long ago." This is contradictory. People who never tell the truth don't go to heaven.

Maple Dots.

Mrs. F. M. Lane has been quite sick but we are glad to report that she is improving.

Mr. G. E. Rancke, of Lumberton, visited in this section few days last week.

"Simon" attended the meeting of the Pee Dee Baptist Association at Wanamaker church, near Nichols, last week.

Mrs. Blanche McColl died suddenly one day last week. The cause was thought to be heart trouble.

Mrs. Betsie Morris, after a long, serious illness died last Thursday. She was buried at Pleasant Grove Cemetery the following day.

The Manning School opened Monday. —"SIMON."

CHARLESTON'S GALA WEEK will occur this year from OCTOBER 25 TO 31, and the ATLANTIC COAST LINE offers very low rates. As usual the progressive citizens of the City by the Sea are out with announcements of their gala week, but this year with a longer list and a higher class, and more pleasing attractions, than in former years, and they are accompanied by a cordial invitation to visit Charleston, which promises a warm welcome.

The distinguishing feature will be the five great musical attractions. The Russian Symphony Orchestra, fifty pieces strong, will make its first appearance in the South, and a chorus of more than two hundred picked voices will take part in these concerts.

Numerous torpedo boats, the completed navy yard, parades, decorations by day and illuminations by night, added to the assured hospitality of the people, will make this trip one long to be remembered pleasantly by every visitor. Low rate round-trip tickets will be sold to Charleston by the Atlantic Coast Line from all points in South Carolina, and from Gibson, N. C., Savannah, Ga., and intermediate points, October 25 to 31, inclusive, good returning to leave Charleston up to and including, but not later than, midnight of November 2, 1909.

For tickets and information regarding rates, schedules, etc., call on J. L. Bridges, ticket agent, Dillon, S. C., or any agent of the Atlantic Coast Line.
